The rich farmlands of the Midwest come alive in the summer, spotlighting all the edible treasures the heartland has to offer. Wheat, corn and grass fed beef, wild berries in baked desserts and crisp summer salads and even crisper fried chicken are all the yield of the flatlands. Teeming with life, America's farmers and ranchers, foragers and chefs contribute to the Midwest's great culinary heritage.

Tuesday 5th hands on: Prep School: Perfecting Grilling Jamie Bordoshuk 6:30 – 8:00 pm $50

It all boils down to "how do I get it started?" and "when is it done?" Everything in between should be simple and fun! Thanks to Chef Jamie's techniques, tips, and recipes, you'll become a master of the backyard grill. Learn the appropriate cuts of meat for the grill, discuss the use of marinades and rubs, and learn how to properly prepare your grill (whether gas, charcoal, or a cast-iron grill pan) so foods don't stick. Get more oomph out of pork chops, more kick out of peaches and intensify salads and desserts, all on the grill.

Make college cooking life easier and more affordable while learning tips and techniques that you will be able to use for the rest of your life! Participants will get instruction on how to make 10 main dishes with 15 primary ingredients. Four of these dishes will actually be made in the class; the recipe packets will include all 10.

Friday 8th hands on: Blue Ribbon State Fair Jean True 6:30 – 9:00 pm $65

Agriculture, livestock, funnel cakes, corn dogs, and blue ribbon competition add up to one thing in summer in the Midwest; the annual state fair. Gracing state fairs for decades, thousands of hopefuls flock to flex their culinary muscles at the annual state fairs; showcasing everything from the best apple pies to the perfect pickle, all entries in search of the same coveted high honor, the blue ribbon. To find a recipe good enough to "wow" an entire state, we ventured across America and found Chef Jean right here in Glen Ellyn to share the tastiest fare of the fair, guaranteed to take home the blue ribbon.

A bit of friendly competition, creative cooking, and unique results are all in store. You may open your baskets!

Vibrant, fiery, fragrant, build all these summer-inspired dishes balancing big, bold flavors.

When Jamie became a stay at home Dad, his part-time passion became his full-time job: bringing home made meals back into the daily routine. No more take-out or prepared meals. Food Network was always playing in the background of his kitchen and more often than not, his attention turned to it when the Barefoot Contessa was on. Ina's meals were simple but delicious and time after time a sure-fire hit with the family.
